Dear Pet Owner,

As you consider the best boarding and daycare options for your fur babies, while remaining mindful of your budget, please consider the information below that may help you make the best choices for your dog or cat. Price matters, for sure, so strive to be an educated consumer and know in advance what an advertised price includes. Otherwise, you may actually end up paying more for your pet to stay at the "Motel 6" than you would if your pet enjoyed the far superior care and accommodations of the "Ritz-Carlton."
